Silverson Announces Their Latest Release, “Anything But Fruitcake”
A 4-song EP of Silly Snarky Holiday Songs.

Silverson is thrilled to announce the release of their new 4-song EP on December 1, 2022, just in time for the Holidays. The songs are full of tongue in cheek sing-a-long lyrics and catchy melodies. This EP features titles like Anything But Fruitcake, Santa’s Skinny Dippin’, Coconuts for Christmas and Oye Vey It’s Christmas Day. The songs are guaranteed to put a smile on the face of listeners and warning could cause one to laugh out loud.

Silverson is a dynamic songwriting duo who writes across various genres, focusing on pop, pop-urban, dark and moody cinematic pop and holiday, primarily geared to sync licensing. This year the pair heard their “artist” calling to them and decided to write and sing some silly snarky songs just for the pure fun and joy of it. It all started on a writing session joking around with some crazy sounding titles, and hence “Anything But Fruitcake” was born!

“I have a special fondness for writing holiday tunes and have managed to pull my co-writer Gail into the spirit. We have written a plethora of original Christmas pop songs over the past three years in addition to this new 4-song EP, says Rob Gibson.

The EP is available for pre-save now at <https://songtradr.lnk.to/xzZnoL> and officially drops December 1, 2022 across all the major streaming platforms. Including Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music, Tidal, Deezer and more.
